HON. E. E. ROBBINS ANNOUNCES AS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

Comes Before the People on Platform and Pledges Himself to Support President Roosevelt.

HON. EDWARD E. ROBBINS.

Honorable Edward E. Robbins, comes before the voters of Westmoreland county as a candidate for Congress from this district. It can be truthfully said of Mr. Robbins that he is one of the most successful practitioners at the Westmoreland bar and his record as a public official and private citizen is such that the most scrutinising voter can endorse, and his appearance again on the political gridiron of this county has caused the old party bosses to quake. Mr. Robbins is an ex-congressman and his record during his term of office should commend him to the voters of his county. During his term there he was instrumental in securing the passage of the Equalization Tax Bill, which has brought about a condition in Pennsylvania that the tax to support the state is paid by corporations. Since the passage of that bill we have no tax on land for state purposes and we now have built a capitol at the standard of ten million dollars and have in the treasury about twelve millions surplus.

Mr. Robbins left Congress and entered the war and was defeated for re-nomination while serving in Porto Rico. He is a man seeking the nomination of the Republican party on a platform founded on common sense and principle. He endorses the policies of Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States and in the following manner puts his cause before the people:

"I have announced my name as a candidate for Congress in the Westmoreland-Butler district, and I write to ask you to assist me in securing the nomination by your vote and influence, at the Republican primary, Saturday afternoon, June 2, between the hours of two and seven p. m. The unrest that is abroad in our country is the result of mis-management of some kind. The wide spread dissatisfaction with existing conditions is chiefly due to the failure of Congress and other legislative bodies to pass laws, correcting existing evils. President Roosevelt is endeavoring to perform the greatest work that any president has undertaken since Lincoln crushed the rebellion and liberated the slaves; yet he is hampered and not properly supported by Congress. If nominated and elected I pledge myself to support the President and the administration.

1—I will support the President in his efforts to secure adequate railroad rate legislation. I am opposed to rebates and special privileges which build up one shipper to the detriment of another. This policy crushes out new industries and prevents the development of the country.

2—I favor a two cent railroad fare which is the rate that has been in force in the state of New York since the first railroad was built and which was adopted by law in Ohio last winter; and a mileage book without the ten dollar deposit now required.

3—I will endeavor to have Congress pass a law restricting foreign emigration, by instituting a system of rigorous inspection and exclude all undesirable foreigners. At present over a million foreigners a year are coming into this country many of whom are undesirable and should be excluded.

4—I favor legislation granting the right of eminent domain to trolley lines, thus enabling them to remove their tracks from our public roads; also granting them the privilege of transporting farm products to market, a right allowed them in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and other states.

I shall support President Roosevelt and his administration. I believe with him "IN A SQUARE DEAL FOR EVERY MAN."

If you believe in these principles, I most earnestly ask your vote and influence in my behalf, and I promise you to use my best endeavors to carry these pledges into effect."

Yours Truly,
E. E. ROBBINS.

REMEMBER the whirligig of time brings in its revenges. The iron heel may yet wax retaliatory. Nuf ced.

TWENTY-FIVE Oakland girls whose homes were destroyed by the earthquake have started a marriage bureau in that city. They have erected a huge sign, stating that they "want husbands." Won't there be a lineup among the fellows for first choice. There may be some crowding, too.

HOUSE numbering is one thing the city council should take up at the next meeting and push it with vigilance. Dozens of houses throughout the city are not numbered. Sometimes people telephone to the burgess' office or to the board of health and give the number of the house and when the representative is sent in search of the place no number can be found. Let us have all houses numbered.

THE people have a right to know just where every candidate seeking a nomination for a place in the legislature stands on vital issues. The time has come when candidates for state, county and national honors must come out and tell the people what issues they expect to support if chosen as public servants. Men in office nowadays are held responsible to the people in a degree greater than heretofore. The selection of good men for the legislature this time is very important.

PEOPLE may criticise public officials severely for certain actions at certain times, but place yourself in the same position as the man being criticised and you will see that it is hard at all times to know what is best for the city's future welfare. One of the most difficult problems now before the city council is the garbage question. How to dispose of our refuge in a practical way in the face of financial embarrassment. The committee and board of health are working untiringly to get a satisfactory method and should have the support of the general public.

Do You Want an Investment in a Real Gold Mine?

Munhall Tonopah is not a get-rich quick proposition that may pan out if you live long enough.

It is a producing gold mine, consisting of five claims, or 100 acres in the richest gold mining district of Tonopah, Nevada.

Most of the stock is owned by United States Steel Corporation men, including C M. Schwab, former President of the Steel Corporation.

These men have faith in Munhall-Tonopah. They have put their own money in it They never have been identified with a failure They generally know a proposition before they invest

They investigated this one and are convinced that it is good

They found that shaft 258 feet deep had been sunk - a double compartment, finely timbered shaft, and that in this, three well defined ledges had been cut—that the ore taken from these ledges assayed from $10 to $42 a ton.

They organized the company with a capital of $1,000,000 00 divided into 1,000,000 shares, par value $1 each.

They have ordered an up-to date steam hoist and complete plant for getting out the ore—a plant capable of sinking shafts to a depth of 1800 feet The plant and outfit will be on the ground May 1

Everything will be in readiness for operation in a very short time

More money is now needed to continue the operations, and a very LIMITED AMOUNT of stock is offered at 25c THE SHARE. When this stock is sold no more will be offered. Ore is now being taken out and there is practically no doubt that when shipments begin, the mine will be one of the best payers in Tonopah It OUGHT to be every bit as valuable as Tonopah Extension.

Experts have found that the veins tapped now are continuations of the veins of the celebrated Mizpah Mines, the ores of which assay from $15 to $250 a ton

We invite close investigation The men who have put their money in this mine expect to make a great deal of money out of it They are not making extravagant promises, or guaranteeing big dividends The prospect looks might good If you want to take a chance with them the opportunity is yours—But you'll have to speak quickly—There's might little stock still to be sold.

Colonel Muggs And His Luck

By Donald Allen

Copyright, 1906, by K. A. Whitehead

Colonel Muggs, U. S. A., was primarily to blame for his capture by Grecian brigands. He was pompous and portly. He wrote his name in big letters on hotel registers and talked about his mines and ranches. When he reached Corinth he strutted a little more than usual. He found there an English lord, and, wanting to show him that he wasn't the only prominent personage about, he cut a swath as wide as he could. Unknown to him there was an article in a Greek paper about him. He was said to be worth $50,000,000 and piling up millions more, and that he talked of buying up all the ruins in Greece and shipping them to New York as a free gift to the city.

Your true Greek brigand takes the daily newspaper and pays special attention to the society column. It was on account of that newspaper article that Colonel Muggs was taken in. He hired a carriage and driver and guide and two flunkies and drove out into the country from Corinth to "do" some interesting ruins, but before he was half finished sight seeing he found that the brigands had "done" him.

The colonel had made his arrangements overnight, and this had given his guide time to send word to the gang. There were five of them, and every man knew his business. They came upon the colonel while he was eating his lunch on a mass of masonry many thousand years old. It was so old that the brigands should have felt awed, but they didn't.

As soon as they had made the colonel understand that he was at their mercy they turned to and ate up the rest of his luncheon and wanted to punch his head because he hadn't left more. When they had finished eating and drinking they set out for the mountains.

The colonel exhibited a reluctance to go with them, but they caused a change of heart by pricking him with the points of their knives. One of them could speak English fairly well, and he explained that, while it was the intention to treat the captive with due consideration until he had yielded up the money, they couldn't permit anything bordering on the frolicsome in his conduct.

"Say, now, but who do you fellers take me for?" demanded the American, as he was being hustled along.

"We have made no mistake," was the reply. "You are the man worth $50,000,000."

"Fifty million nothings! Where did you get hold of any such rot?"

"In the newspapers. You shall see them when we get to camp."

"Well, you are a lot of fools. I have been swelling around some, and have perhaps given a false impression, but it's all being done on check. I'll tell you straight that I'm from Meriden, Conn., U. S. A. I'm no colonel, though I hate to admit it to a blamed gang of robbers. I'm simply Joseph J. Muggs, traveling salesman for a clock factory. I am over here to introduce eight day clocks, and I have hardly money enough to pay my hotel bill and get out of town. If you've got hold of me thinking to raise a stake, you are going to get left."

"We shall see," replied the leader, while the smile on his face showed that he thought the colonel was trying to work off old stock on him.

After a five hour tramp they reached headquarters in the hill. Headquarters was a dilapidated hut and a campfire in a lonely spot. Some black bread and roasted goat's flesh constituted supper, and later on the brigands sat in a circle around their captive, and the leader said:

"You shall have the freedom of the camp as long as you are with us, but some one will have an eye on you all the time. The first move you make to escape will bring a bullet. In the morning you may write a letter to your banker, and it will be sent to the town by messenger."

"What in the devil shall I write to my banker about?" demanded the colonel, who was tired and disgusted.

"That he shall send us a sum equal to what you would call $500,000 in your American money as your ransom."

"Jupiter Jewkins, but are you crazy! Have the whole five of you just escaped from some lunatic asylum? If you want any further chat with me tonight, then don't talk through the top of your hat."

"You will write in the morning," said the leader, while the others muttered under their breath.

"But I have no banker in Corinth."

"Then to the American consul. He will help you to get the ransom money from America. He will use the cable, and in three days it will be here and you will be free."

"Say, old man," remarked the colonel after a hearty laugh, "this will be one on me when I get back to Meriden. You seem to have got the idea that there are millions in the clock business. Let me tell you that if we show 4 per cent clean profits a year we are tickled to death. My bank balance in the First national of Meriden is about $7."

"The papers say that you are worth $50,000,000."

"The papers be hanged! If you run this brigand business by what the papers say you'll die in the poorhouse."

"But you are to buy up all the ruins of our country," persisted the leader.

"Yes, when hens climb trees. I couldn't buy one old broken column. Just make up your mind that you've got hold of the wrong man. It's that English lord you want to lay hands on. I've been putting on side, but it's all froth."

The colonel was ordered into the hut to pass the night, and the brigands went into caucus. They believed the American to be lying. Once they had captured a wealthy Frenchman who had lied them out of a big ransom, and they didn't mean to be caught again.

When morning came there was another slim breakfast. Then the leader said:

"If you wish to be free in two days, then write to your bank in Corinth."

"But I told you I had none," replied the colonel.

"Then to your country's consul."

"He could be of no use whatever."

"Listen to me," said the man as his comrades fingered their knives menacingly. "We give you one week in which to raise the ransom. After that you are a dead man. Don't trifle with us. You cannot deceive us, and you cannot hope for a rescue."

"Well, all I've got to say is that if you fellers tried to do business on your plan in Meriden you'd go stone broke in two weeks. I've told you the truth, and if you are too thick headed to absorb it it's your misfortune."

The brigands were in no hurry. Neither were they in any danger of being overhauled. They divided their ransom money with the lt, and the lt saw that they were not interfered with.

Nothing further was said to the colonel for two days. He made himself believe that he was out on a huckleberry excursion and tried to enjoy it. On the third day he noticed that the brigands began to exhibit signs of impatience and feel the edges of their knives. On the morning of the fifth writing materials were placed before him, and the leader said:

"Perhaps you will write to your banker today?"

"With the greatest of pleasure, if you will only tell me who he is."

"Oh, very well. There are two days left to you."

Colonel Muggs hadn't been taking things as easy as appeared. He was in a hole and couldn't see his way out. He couldn't raise $200 just then to save his life, and he realized that he had put himself into a false position and that the brigands would hold him to it. For four days he had had an eye out for any chance to make a break, but he had been under strict watch.

Soon after noon on that fifth day a big thunder cloud came sweeping up from the south and brought a torrent of rain and terrific thunder and lightning. Every one crowded into the hut for shelter, and the brigands were cursing and praying alternately when something occurred big enough to make a sensation in America for a few minutes. What it was the colonel didn't know until half an hour later, when he woke up. Then he found himself and the brigands lying in the midst of the ruins of the old hut. His fellow lodgers seemed very quiet, and he decided not to disturb them. He gathered up their knives and carbines, and, retaining one of the latter, he chucked the rest into a ravine and then set out for Corinth. If the brigands woke up after he departed they did not pursue.

"A h-h, colonel, but my heart was rent with sorrow when I heard of your capture!" exclaimed the landlord at Corinth as the colonel walked in on him.

"Well, I dunno," was the reply. "You've got to get up pretty early to beat a Yankee and an eight day clock combined."

Accommodating Landlord.

A correspondent assures us that he never knew that it was possible for an innkeeper to be too accommodating to his guests until he went down to Nova Scotia and put up at a pleasant little hotel in the country. The landlord of this hotel laid it down as one of his principles of action to give people a little more than they asked for—to be "extra accommodating," as he termed it.

The landlord brilliantly illustrated his adherence to this principle the very morning after our correspondent's arrival at the hotel. The guest had to go away on the 7 o'clock train that morning and asked the proprietor to call him at 6. The guest went to sleep in the calm assurance that he should be aroused at the proper hour.

He seemed hardly to have fallen into a sound sleep when he heard a terrific pounding at his door. He sprang up wide awake.

"What's the matter?" he called out.

"Four o'clock! Four o'clock!" came the landlord's voice from the other side of the door. "Two hours [illegible] to sleep!"

It is needless to say that the guest slept no more that morning. The landlord's anxiety to be "extra accommodating" failed of its mark that time.

Where Gloves Are Grown.

The raising of kids for their skins is a leading industry among the French mountaineers, who obtain no small part of their subsistence from this source. Softness, delicacy of texture and freedom from blemish are principal factors in the value of kid skins, and to secure these essentials great pains are taken. As soon as the young animal begins to eat grass the value of the skin declines, for with a grass diet its skin immediately begins to grow coarser and harder in texture, and its chief merit vanishes. It is, therefore, kept closely penned, not only to prevent it from eating brass, but also to secure its skin from accidental injury from scratches or brushes, which impair its value. When the kids have reached a certain age at which the skins are in the best condition for the use of the glover they are killed, and the hides are sold to traveling hawkers, through whom they reach the great centers of the tanning industry at Annonay, Millau, Paris and Grenoble.

AN OLD MAN'S TRIBUTE.

An Ohio Fruit Raiser, 78 Years Old, Cured of a Terrible Case After Ten Years of Suffering.

When suffering daily torture
From backache, rheumatic pain,
Any ill of kidneys or bladder,
Turn to Doan's Kidney Pills.
A cure endorsed by thousands.
Read an old man's tribute.

Sidney Justus, fruit dealer, of Mentor, Ohio, says: "I was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills of a severe case of kidney trouble of eight or ten years' standing. I suffered the most severe backache and other pains in the region of the kidneys. These were especially severe when stooping to lift anything, and often I could hardly straighten my back. The aching was bad in the daytime, but just as bad at night, and I was always lame in the morning. I was bothered with rheumatic pains and dropsical swelling of the feet. The urinary passages were painful, and the secretions were discolored and so free that often I had to rise at night. I felt tired all day. Half a box served to relieve me, and three boxes effected a permanent cure."

SIDNEY JUSTUS.

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Justus will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Origanal Laxative Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and is harmless.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The tar that is contained in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is harmless. It is not coal tar, but is obtained from the pine trees of our own native forests. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the best remedy for colds because it acts on the bowels—thus expelling all colds from the system. Bee's is the origanal Laxative Honey and Tar, and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, lung and bronchial effections. Sold by C. A. Light.

Don't frown—look pleasant. If you are suffering from indigestion or sour stomach, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hon. Jake Moore, of Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered more than 20 years with indigestion. A friend recommended Kodol. It relieved me in one day and I now enjoy better health than for many years." Kodol digests what you eat, relieves sour stomach, gas on stomach, belching, etc.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

A liquid cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial effections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by C. A. Light.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago. It is the Origanal. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been recognized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backache, kidney and bladder troubles. Pine-ules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by C. A. Light.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

It is not difficult to relieve blind bleeding, itching or protruding piles with ManZan, the great pile remedy. It is put up in collapseable tubes with nozzle, and may be introduced and applied at the seat of the trouble. Stops pain instantly. Sold by C. A. Light.

LEAGUE TEAM LOSES GAME.

E. E. A. C.'s Capture Saturday's Game by Narrow Margin of One Run.---Fair Sized Crowd Attended.

In their first practice game of the season the Monessen League team met defeat at Athletic Park Saturday by a score of 3 to 2, and their conquerers, the E E. A. C.'s have added another scalp to their credit. The fact that it was impossible for Manager Lee Vaughn of the League team to get his regular lineup together had much to do with the final result.

Both teams played a very creditable game and a good sized crowd witnessed the contest. A wild throw by Kelley in the sixth inning with the score 2 to 1 in the league team's favor brought in two runs for the youngsters and won the game. Following this both pitchers settled down and allowed no more runs to be scored for either side. A one handed catch of a line drive by Rol O'Rouke while on a dead run was the feature of the game. The line up and score by innings follows: League—Rowe R. F; Haywood, 3rd; Mathews, 2nd; Vaughn Middle; Cratty, Catcher; M. Haywood, Short; Broman, L, Mulhern, 1st; Kelley, Pitcher. East End Athletic Club—Underwood, 2nd; Mossioux, Short; J. O'Rourke R; Robert McLaughlin, 3rd; C. Shutterly, Pitcher; E. Shutterly 1st; C. Doney, Catcher; H. McLaughlin M; Rol O'Rouke L.

WITH THE "PEACE AGENTS"

Police Get Busy Yesterday After Having Passed a Quite Week Sunday Ball Players Arrested.

Although there was absolutely nothing doing the entire week at Mayor Shutterly's court things took an encouraging spurt at yesterday morning's session. Whether the warm weather is responsible for this increase in business or not the fact remains that things are "Picking up."

The list of offenders was unusually well assorted there being several of the juvenile variety in the bunch.

Alexander Dietz who had absorbed a trifle too much of the inspiring fluid commonly called "Booze" was the first called and was exceedingly prompt in wending his way to the bar of justice. He was fined $2 and costs but on account of his having left his check book in his other clothes he will be required to board it out in the floro Hotel. Emanuel Phillip, colored, will keep him company as the same dose for the same disease. Frank Jelks a slav was arrested Saturday eve charged with being drunk and disorderly. Frank, had it seems gotten it into his head that his wife needed a little chastisement and was proceeding to carry out the idea with the aid of a chair when placed under arrest. He was fined $5 and costs and paid up like a man. Joe Kartzo was arrested at 4th street Saturday night charged with being unable to navigate His fun cost him $2 and costs plus the price of the "lush."

Eight boys ranging in age from 10 to 14 charged with breaking loose a skiff belonging to the Page Fence Co., yesterday morning pleaded guilty and after a severe ecture were fined $1 and permitted to go

This morning a crowd of boys headed by Patsy Conti faced his honor as a result of their having indulged in a little game of ball on the street yesterday. This is a strict violation of the city ordinance which prohibits Sunday ball playing in the borough. The boys were all small with the exception of young Conti; Mayor Shutterly gave them a good talking and explained that it would be "23" for the next person caught playing ball on Sunday. They were then let off Young Conti had, it seems, attempted to run from officer Fenton while he was in the act of placing him under arrest with the result that he received a whack from the officer's mace, which left its mark. This was complained of by the boy's father this morning but he was told that the boy should have submitted peacefully instead of attempting to run away which would have prevented the occurance.

WONDERFUL MIRAGES.

Those Seen in the Winter Twilights in Northern Alaska.

The most wonderful mirages ever beheld by mortal eyes are those that are seen in the twilight winter days in northern Alaska. These remarkable ghastly pictures of things, both imaginary and real, are mirrored on the surface of the waste plains instead of upon the clouds or in the atmosphere. Mimic lakes and water courses fringed with vegetation are to be seen pictured as real as life on the surface of the snow, while grassy mounds, stumps, trees, logs, etc., which have an actual existence some place on the earth's surface, are outlined against mountains of snow in all kinds of fantastic shapes. Some of these objects are distorted and magnified into the shapes of huge, ungainly animals and reptiles of enormous proportions. The fogs and mists are driven across these wastes by the winds, and as the objects referred to loom up in the flying vapors they appear like living creatures and seem to be actually moving rapidly across the plain.

At other times they appear high in the air, but this is a characteristic of the northern mirages that are seen near the seashore. When the vapors and mists are driven out to sea the images mirrored in them appear to be lunging through the waters at a terrific rate of speed, dashing the spray high in the air, while huge breakers roll over them and onward toward the mountainous islands beyond and against which they all appear to be dashing. Monstrous serpents, apparently several hundred feet long, sometimes with riders on their backs, men on horseback thirty to fifty feet in height, animals and birds of all kinds of horrible shapes and colors seem to be scurrying past, racing and chasing each other until they are lost in the twilight fogs or dashed to pieces upon the rocky islands mentioned above and which are twenty miles out to sea.

THE RED SQUIRREL.

He Stores Very Little Food For Use In Winter.

In Maine- in fact, all over New England—red squirrels do not put by great hoards of any kind for winter use. When a Maine red squirrel has filled itself with acorns and beechnuts it will hide a few here and there—under leaves, in hollow logs, in cracks of rifted trees and among stone heaps.

An average red squirrel, having the run of an oak grove in the fall of the year, may in the course of two weeks hide away from two to four quarts of acorns, though they will be in perhaps twenty different places, and in no instance which we have noted has any nut been shelled.

The squirrel which plans a hoard of nuts and makes deliberate preparations for winter is the little chipmunk, or striped squirrel, which seeks winter quarters soon after heavy frosts and which remains in hiding all winter. The chipmunks often hide as many as two quarts of shelled beechnuts in one place. Their storehouses are, as a rule, under the ground, in sloping and sandy soil, the burrows having been dug with true engineering skill, so that no freshet can drown them out.

It is believed that most observing woodsmen will say that the red squirrels of this vicinity seldom make large caches of provisions for winter consumption and never shell the stored nuts. In fact, the red species have no need to pay much heed to such matters, as they are abroad and active in the coldest days of winter as much as they are in midsummer, so precautions for food are not demanded. As the red squirrels subsist for a good part of the year upon the cones of pines and spruces, which hang to the limbs, they do not care how deep or hard the snow may be, feeling secure in finding all the food they want among the treetops.—Bangor News.

The Disappointment.

May—It was too bad that Miss Trills disappointed the audience at the amateur performance. Elsie—But she didn't. She was able to appear after all. May—Yes, but it was generally supposed that she would not be able to appear.

Monessen, Pa.

Dear Sir: Two years ago, Mr. Grant Smith, Erie, Pa, painted three frame houses, and the woodwork of a brick house.

The painter estimated $116.50 for the paint, lead-and-oil.

He bought Devoe $97 40 and returned $11.60. Saved $31.10 on the paint.

Don't know the cost of the work.

By the rule, the saving of labor would be from $60 to $90.

On all, from $90 to $150.

This is the tale, as it comes from Messers W. F. Nick & Son, our agents there for 40 years.

Yours truly

Belle Vernon Italian Arrested.

Police officer Cate of Belle Aernon arrested an Italian at Seldom Seen just back of that place last evening for attempting to hold up several of his countrymen. When arrested he had in his posession a 38 caliber revolver. It is the opinion of the Italian residents there that he has some connection with the Black Hand although it is impossiple to get them to say anything as they no doubt fear the consequences. Information was made against him before a Justice of the Peace and he will be given a hearing this evening

Uniontown All Right.

Uniontown granted a franchise the other day to a street car company with the provision that the traces can be used by any other company which desires an entrance to the town over this route and charge a rental of $500 a year for the privilege. Now that sounds like business. Such actions have a brainy jingle. Monessen has'nt got a respectable street in the town. The main entrance to the city is about as wide as an alley and has two car lines on it. The side walk has even been given over to the street car. The public rights have been squandered. The remainder of the streets have been torn to pieces by the gas and water companies. All that is left for the people to do is bewail the awful situation.

AN ORDINANCE.

To regulate the manner of keeping dogs

Be it ordained and enacted by the borough of Monessen in council assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same.

Sect. 1. That hereafter the running at large of dogs upon the streets, alleys and other public places of the borough, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and is prohibited, unless such dogs wear a securely fitted muzzle with attached license tag approved by the chief Burgess

Sect 2. It shall be unlawful for any bitch while in heat to run at large under any circumstances, whether licensed or not; she shall be kept securely tied by her owner or keeper, and in the event of her running on the streets or other public places, it shall be the duty of the chief of police to shoot such bitch. All dogs so shot shall be removed and buried at the expense of their owners or keeper, if they can be found, otherwise at the expense of the borough.

Sect. 3. It shall be the duty of the chief of police to impound all dogs running at large in violation of section 1 of this ordinance or in violation of any ordinance requiring all dogs to be taxed and licensed. He shall detain all such dogs until a hearing can be had before the chief Burgess for the owner or keeper of such dogs. He shall post a notice on the door of the pound of all such captures describing the animal. If, at the end of forty-eight hours, no one appears and claims such dog, or no hearing can be secured as above provided, it shall be the duty of the chief of police to put to death such dogs or to dispose of them as will carry out the purposes of all ordinances relating to dogs.

Sect. 4. Any person or persons, partnerships, association, company or corporation violating or failing to comply with the provisions of any section of this ordinance, shall on conviction pay a fine of not more than twenty five dollars in the discretion of the Chief Burgess, and in the event of failure to pay the fine imposed, together with all costs of suit, said person or persons shall be imprisoned in the borough lockup for a period not exceeding five days.

Sect. 5. All ordinances or parts thereof not consistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted in Council this 3rd day of May, one thousand nine-hundred and six (1906).

Approved this 4th day of May, one thousand nine-hundred and six (1906).
